HISTORIC PANGUITCH

Named for the "Big Fish" in nearby Panguitch Lake, the historic city of Panguitch is the largest in Bryce Canyon Country. Panguitch is a popular travel stop offering a range of services, including 13 motels, 3 Bed & Breakfasts, and 3 RV/Campgrounds. During the summer months regular events include Rodeo's, a Quilt Walk Festival, The Panguitch Valley Balloon Rally, Hog Rally's, an ATV Rally, Independence Day and Pioneer Day (July 24) parades, cycling events, a Working Ranch Horse Competition, County Fair and Demolition Derby, and much much more.

The city's Historic District provides unique shopping and a variety of restaurants. Free brochures available at the City Office take visitors on self-guided "Walking Tours" of the city's Historic Business District, and one-of-a-kind lovely Old Brick Homes Tour, most over a century old. These homes were built of red brick from a community kiln, where all who participated in the project were paid with enough bricks to build their own homes.

Panguitch is surrounded by spectacular scenery and a variety of outdoor recreation opportunities. Accessible right from town are hundreds of miles of ATV/UTV trails, as well as nearby hiking/biking trails. Just seven miles south of Panguitch is Scenic Byway 12, recently rated #2 by Fox in the world's top ten most beautiful highways. Amazing Bryce Canyon National Park is a mere 20 minute drive on Byway 12 and beautiful Panguitch Lake is 18 miles southwest of Scenic Byway 143, "Utah's Patchwork Parkway" (another amazing scenic drive). This mountain lake resort is renowned for its trout fishing, and offers boating, hiking, horseback riding, mountain biking, cross country skiing, ice fishing in the winter, and snowmobiling.

Other nearby scenic and recreational attractions include the Dixie National Forest, Red Canyon, Kodachrome Basin State Park, the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument, and Cedar Breaks National Monument. Make Panguitch your place to stay as you enjoy the scenic wonders of Bryce Canyon Country.
